Definitions

THE EQUALITY ACT 2010

Within the United Kingdom there has been a significant body of legislation relating to discrimination. Also, a number of Commissions in support of the legislation have issued codes on various aspects of discrimination from time to time. This policy reflects the consolidation of previous individual rights equality legislation into the Equality Act 2010 (The Act).

UK Versity will implement its general equality duty set out in the Equality Act 2010 to:

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct prohibited by the Act
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.
- Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.

UK Versity will also meet its specific duties as defined by the law. It will continue to implement and assess the impact of its policies, procedures and practices on present and potential students, staff and visitors,

UK Versity believes that high quality education is a right for all, and encourages all students and staff to reach their potential.

The new act streamlines the protection of individuals and will extend the coverage for what has been referred to as “protected characteristics”, these are:

- Age
- Disability
- Gender & gender reassignment
- Pregnancy & maternity
- Race
- Religion or belief
- Sexual orientation
- Marriage or civil partnership

Through this Single Equality Scheme UK Versity will assert its commitment to equality & inclusion to broaden its policies to serve those identified by the legislation; in our procedures & practices we will look to this scheme to fulfil our obligations as a provider of higher education & services.
